Mission statement

We, the Parish community of Sacred Heart, Camberwell celebrates the presence of Christ in our lives. Central and true to our name, we celebrate, we stand, and we dedicate our lives, witnessing to the unfailing love and friendship of God, through His beloved Son, in whose Heart of love we find daily strength for our journey.

We are a catholic community, diverse and multicultural. Everyone has a voice and everyone is welcome. We strive to make visible, God's love and care for the world in word, sacrament, and service to all. Nourished by the sacraments and in our diversity, we strive to create a supportive parish family that fosters communication. We use our talents as responsible stewards-accountable to God, to our neighbour, to our community and to the world at large.

Rev Fr Victor Darlington .

Reflection:

The Three Acts:

All the comedies and tragedies of playwrights, consciously or subconsciously, are commentaries on the role played by characters in the Lord's Passion. It is the one drama that is real, and there is no audience because everyone is an actor in it. This divine comedy is also a divine tragedy, depending on which role we chose. The children who waved palm branches had a foretaste of heaven, and those who plotted to stop the drama had a foretaste of heaven's opposite. There were others who preferred to take no part, but when they fled the scene they were like all those who prefer to live as though there is no theme to existence.

God has endowed the human soul with the gift of imagination, enabling us to think of the past and present and future, like three acts in human history. Each of them is a part of a whole, and Christ's Passion explains all of them. We can be sorrowful if we think everything is over, or anxious if we think everything is uncertain, or infinitely happy as we stay with him to the end.

As Christ carries his cross past us, he gives each of us a choice of what role to play. Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote, "Sorrow looks back. Worry looks around. Faith looks up."

Reflection based on Mark 14:1-15:47

Heavenly Father, help me to learn from the past and not be haunted by it, to rejoice in the present and not be burdened by it, and to hope for the future and not be afraid of it.
